

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 26, 1996

SUBJECT: SB 3144 - HB 3093

This bill, if enacted, will add to the definition of serious bodily injury that the victim sustained breaks, fractures or loss of teeth.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in state expenditures of $118,300 for incarceration*. This estimate is based upon 5 convictions for Class D aggravated assaults receiving a sentence of two years with 219 days served and five convictions of Class C aggravated assaults receiving a sentence of three years with 329 days served.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

Section 9-6-119, TCA, requires that: For any law enacted after July 1, 1986, which results in a net increase in periods of imprisonment in state facilities, there shall be appropriated from recurring revenues the estimated operating cost of such law.*
